PURPLE QUILL

Ball High School
Galveston, Texas

DEDICATION

MISS HELEN ROBINSON

Many people make deep impressions on the lives of students while they are in High School. Some of these impressions are good, some are bad. But these impressions, whether good or bad, perhaps mold our lives more than all the textbooks that we, as students, can possibly read.

Miss Helen Robinson made a good impression.

She was a good teacher.

Miss Robinson retired at the end of the 1963 school year. She had been a teacher for 44 years, 34 of which were at Ball High.

She was devoted.

She was aware of her responsibility.

She was concerned about her students.

She had an uncanny knowledge of English.

She made a deep impression on the lives of her students, and this impression was good.

Ball High School is indebted to her for what she was, and it is with this in mind, that we dedicate this, the 1964 Purple Quill, to Miss Helen Robinson.

FOREWORD

Many things have come and gone since the beginning of the school year in September. As you turn the pages of your 1964 Purple Quill, we hope you will recall the many events, whether they be good, bad, sad, or glad, which occurred up to and through the big night of graduation.

We all laughed at things we thought were funny, and we cried at things that were sad. Now it's time to look ahead, for the Seniors, either to college or the business world, and for the Juniors and Sophomores another year to come at Ball High.

As the doors of B.H.S. close for another year, the staff of the Purple Quill hopes that you will be successful and happy in every way now, and in all the years ahead.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1964:

Congratulations on attaining this milestone in your educational progress. Graduation from high school will be your springboard into the economic life of your community or to the next phase of your formal education.

Continue the good work you have done. Set for yourself high standards for whatever endeavor you undertake and make your life reflect mature values and worthy ideals.

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1964

VICE-PRINCIPAL

You are to be congratulated upon your achievements and commended for your spirit of co-operation. We appreciate your efforts in making Ball High School second to none and we are grateful for the privilege of having been associated with you.

In the years to come we will be expecting great things from you and will rejoice in your successes.

Sincerely,

C. W. Wilson,
Vice-Principal

TOR ACTIVITIES

The first activities along Tornado road cause much excitement and anticipation, for it is the football season. With the football season come the precision Tornettes, the blaring band, the cheering Pep Squad, the thundering Pep rallies, and the after-game dances.

Enthusiastic seniors cheer loudly for their last Pep rally.

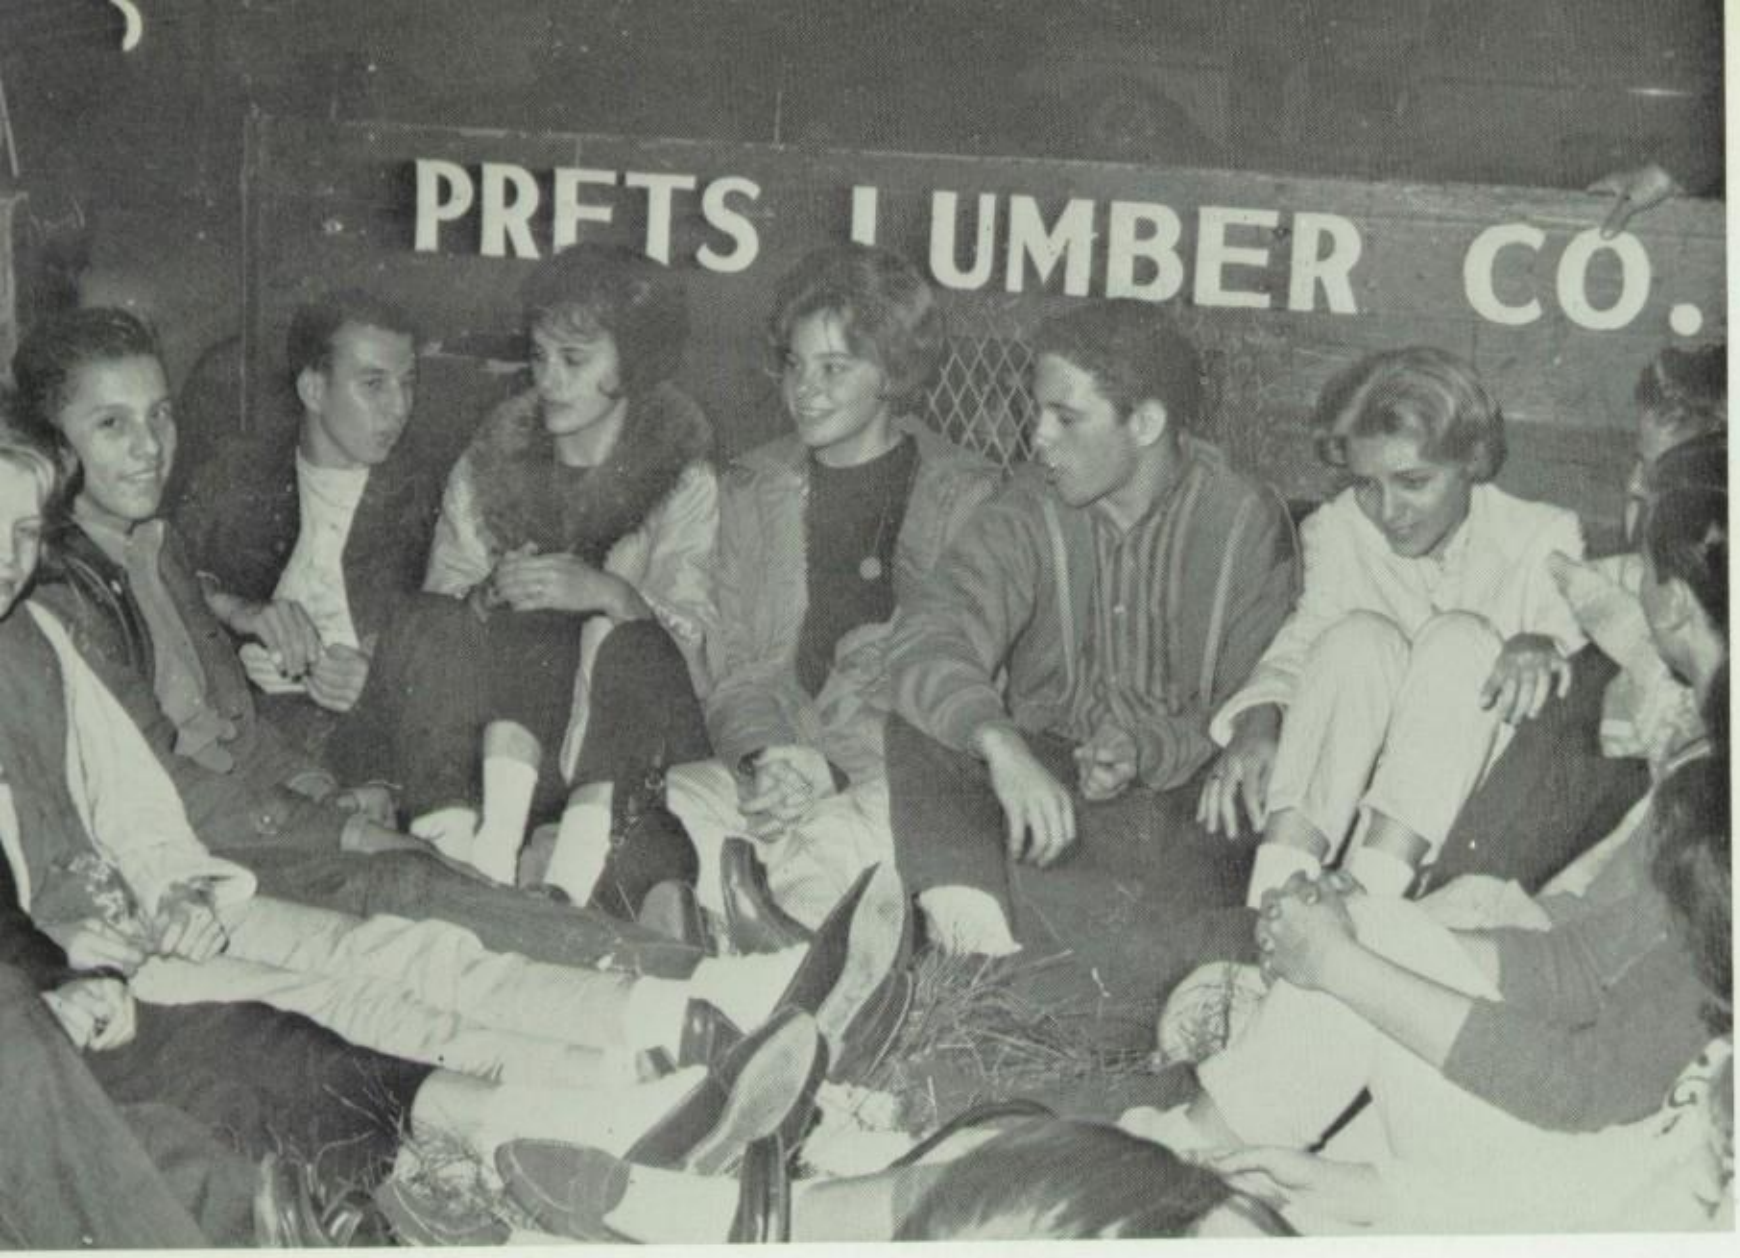
Shouts come from the loud mouths of the Pep Club.

And . . . the . . . band . . . played . . . on!

The Tornettes always add loads of spirit to the football games!

"Little Bit" crowns "Big Bit."

The night pep-rallies bring lots of fun.



Sophomores play in the hay.

Some viewers at the bonfire.

WACO TRIP

This year the Band and Tornettes were invited to perform in Waco for the Baylor-Arkansas game. As usual the Tornetter performed with perfection causing a standing ovation, and the band gave one of their best performances. These pictures represent the many funfilled memories of those who experienced this trip.

Looks like Camllie is getting a little help in going to sleep!

The peons have revolted!

"Smile though your heart is aching"

MR. AND MISS SCHOOL SPIRIT

Each week a boy and a girl are chosen from the student body by the cheerleaders for having shown outstanding school spirit. The girls receive gold Mums, and the boys receive gold Boutonnieres.

This year's school spirits are Nancy Garbade, Robert Denyer, Trudie Rodemark, Mathew Seymour, Carole Wegner, Wesler Pearlman, and Lynn Levin.

Jane Vineyard, George Rogers, Crickett Guyette, Bill Spencer, Vicky Tavener, and Dorothy Kirsten. Not pictured are Martha Blakenship, Scott Kenyon, Roger McReynolds, Lew Derrickson, and Paul Gaido.

A little band helps to entertain the crowd.

Just goofing off!

Finished at last.

VICTORY!

HOMECOMING QUEEN AND COURT

This year's Homecoming was brought to its climax with the crowning of Susie Goodrich, Ball High's 1963 Homecoming Queen. She was crowned October 25, at the Public School Stadium, when the Tors played Brazosport. Her court consisted of Dana Yarbrough, Helen Hosey, Julie Towler, Charlotte McCowan, and Susie Pichard. After the game the annual Homecoming Dance was held in the Ball High School cafeteria.

Congratulations, Susie!

Band Sweetheart for 1963 was Diane Rumph. Standing beside her are Gerri Hoffman and Mary Clark.

Proud Tornettes receive flowers for their outstanding dancing ability during the season.

Miss Gerbert pins a flower on Coach Fertita for good luck during the Homecoming Pep Rally.

Congratulations, Diane

COLOR WEEK DANCE

Color Week is an exciting time for every B.H.S. student. The try-outs, campaign speeches, and elections for cheerleader and student council officers are held during this week. The results of the election are not revealed until Friday night at the dance.

Reedy Goodman and Dot Nelson were elected King and Queen of the dance by the school.

After the announcement of the winners, people gather to offer their congratulations.

SENIOR PICNIC

Grads spent most of the afternoon trying to drown one another.

In goes somebody!

The leaning tower.

Graduates take time out from swimming for a little folk singing.

Out comes Mr. Wallace

Olivia Maceo shows off for the crowd.

A group of grads "cheesecake" around the Country Club pool.

Time out for a little food.

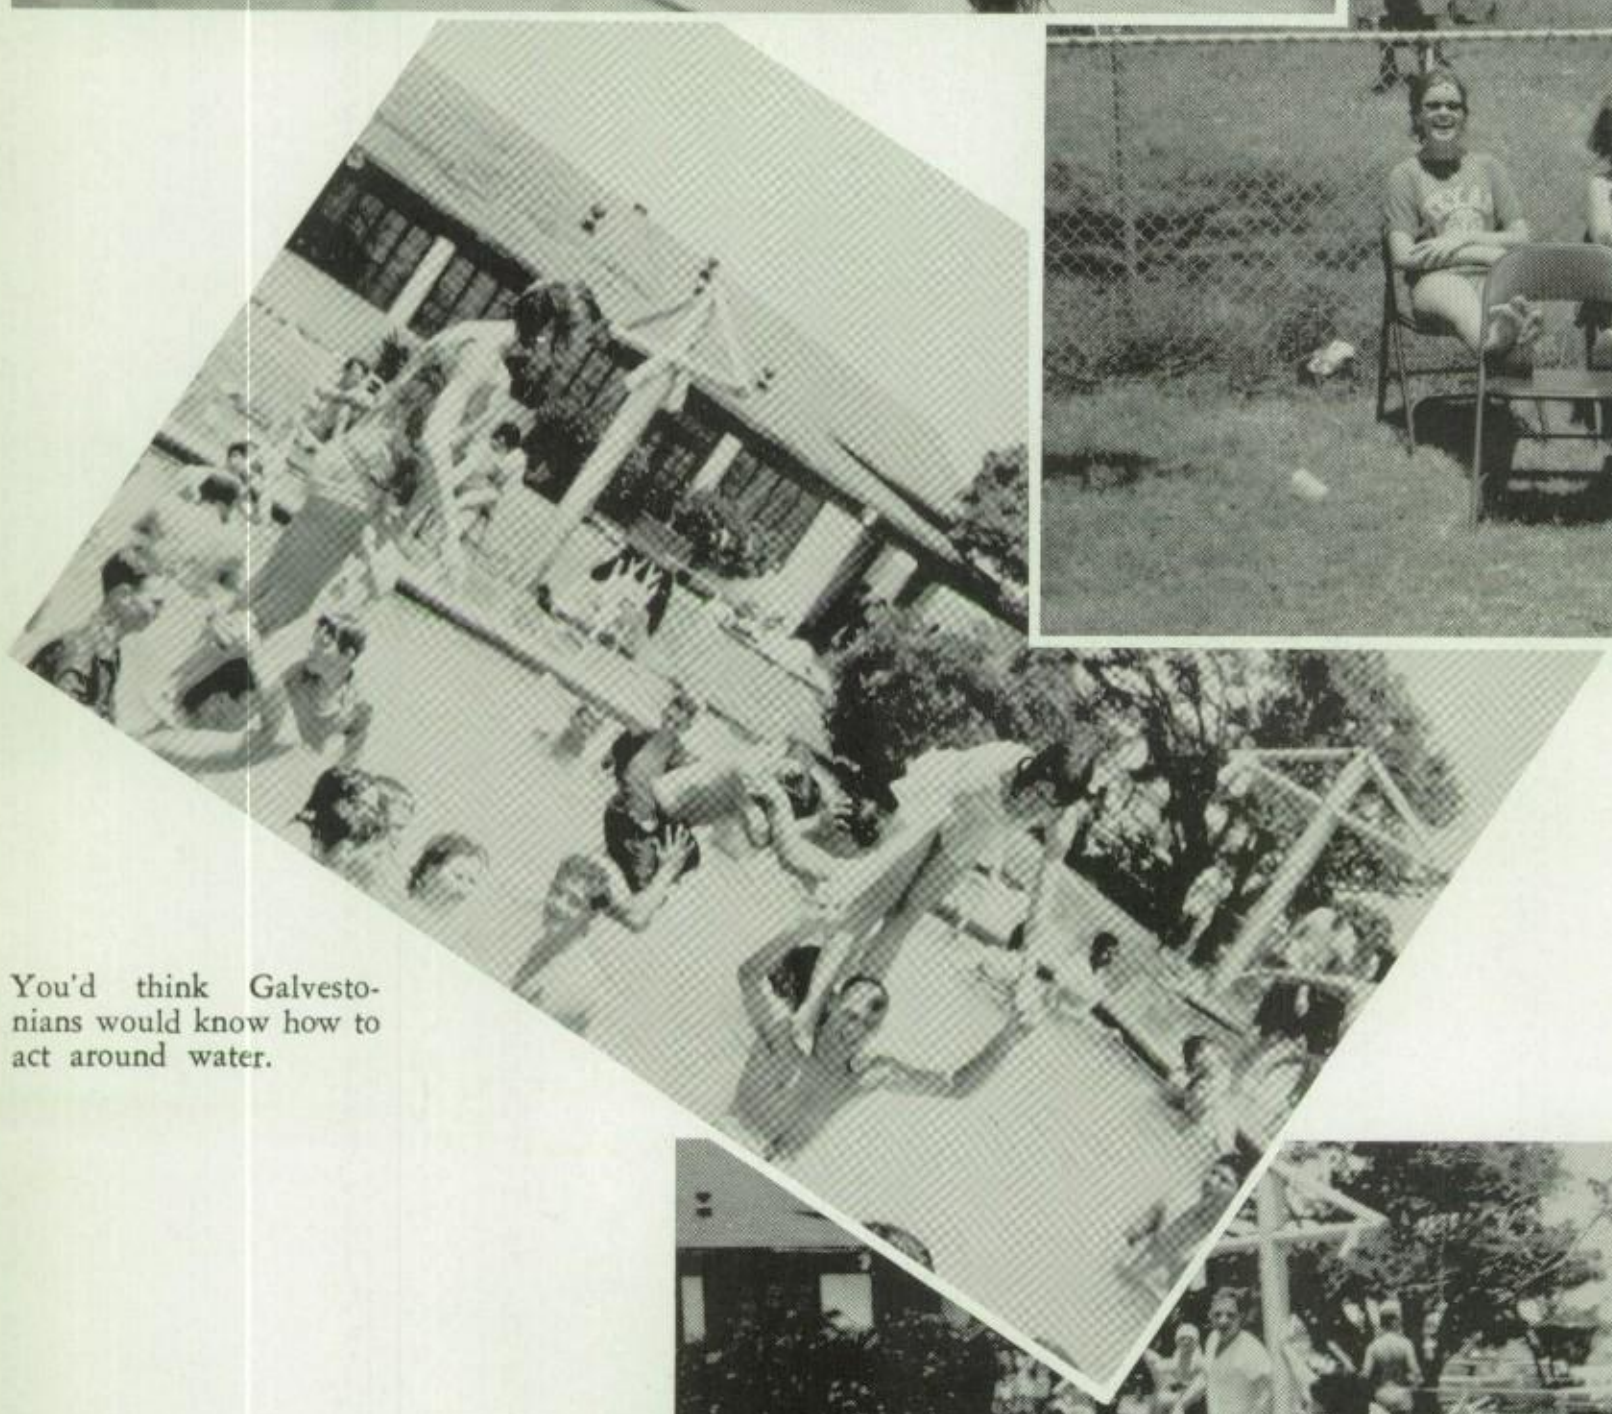
Lawrence of Arabia.

Caught just before they got dunked.

Oops!

Everybody goes swimming at the Senior Picnic.

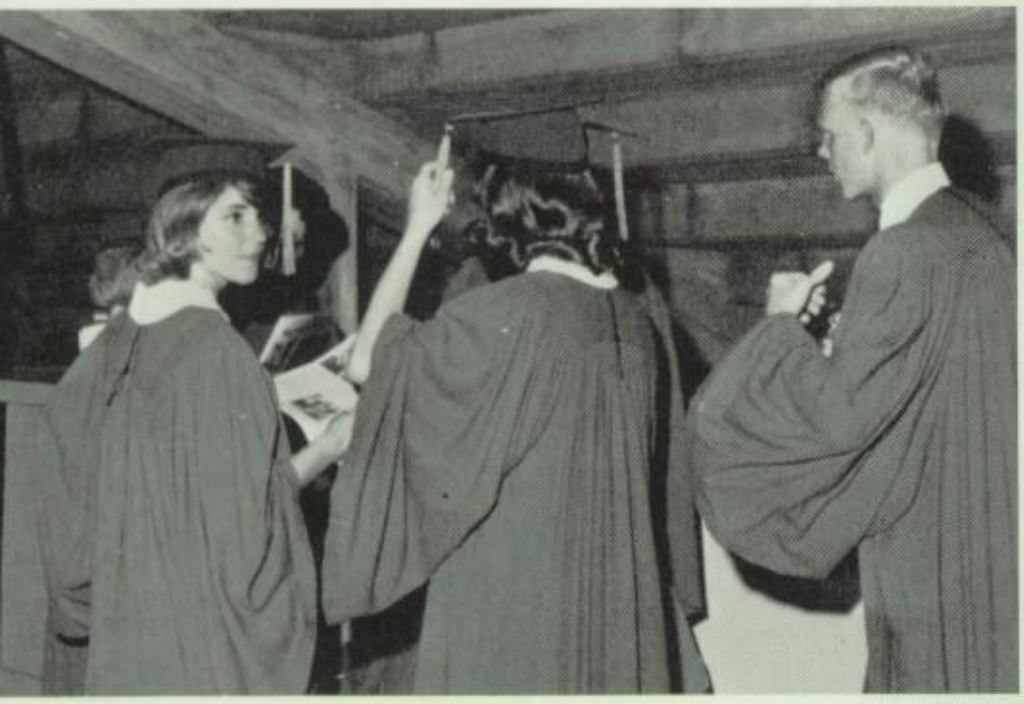
We've made it now—not a care in the world.



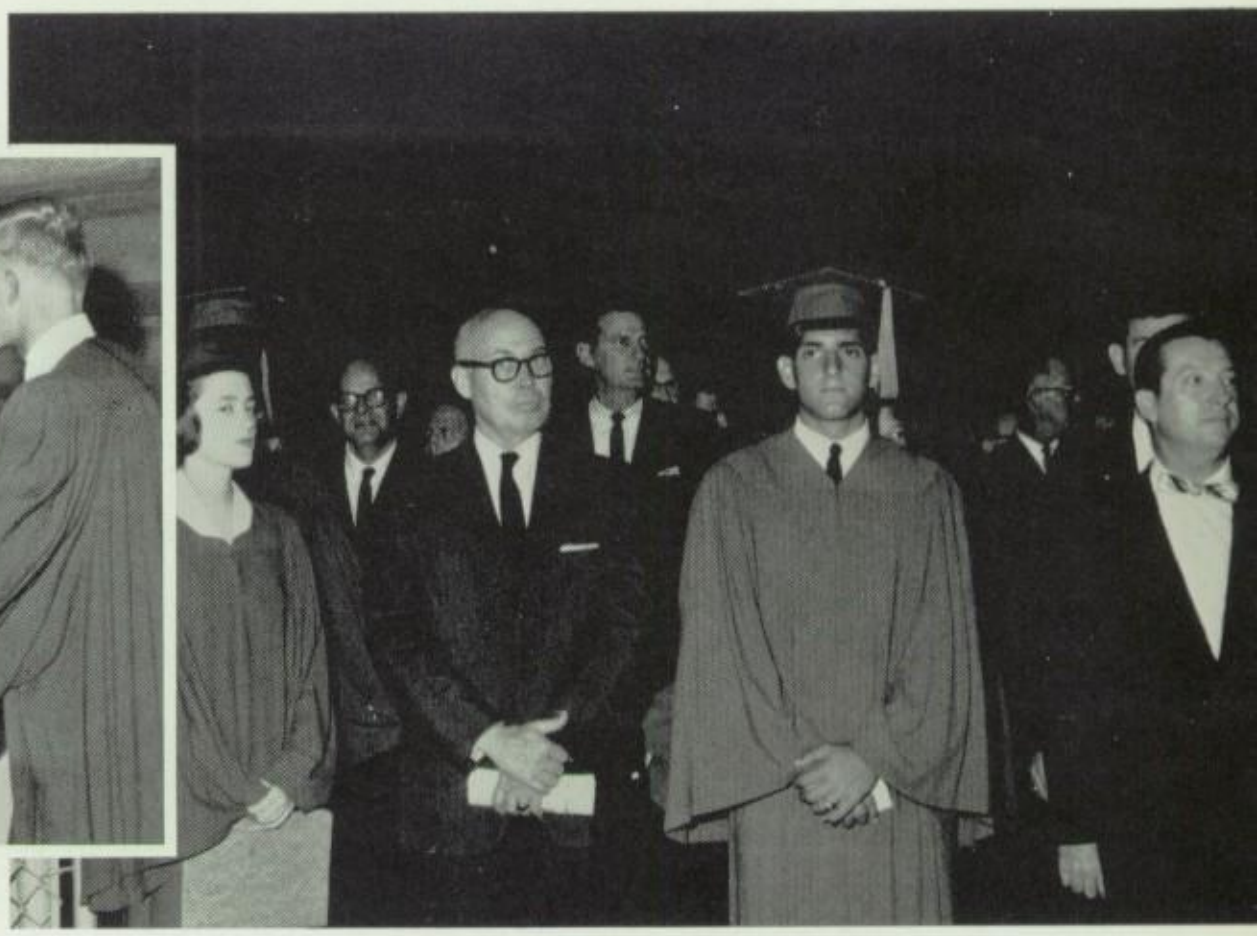
You'd think Galvestonians would know how to act around water.

Boys are so chivalrous!

COMMENCEMENT



Grads make last minute adjustments with caps and gowns.

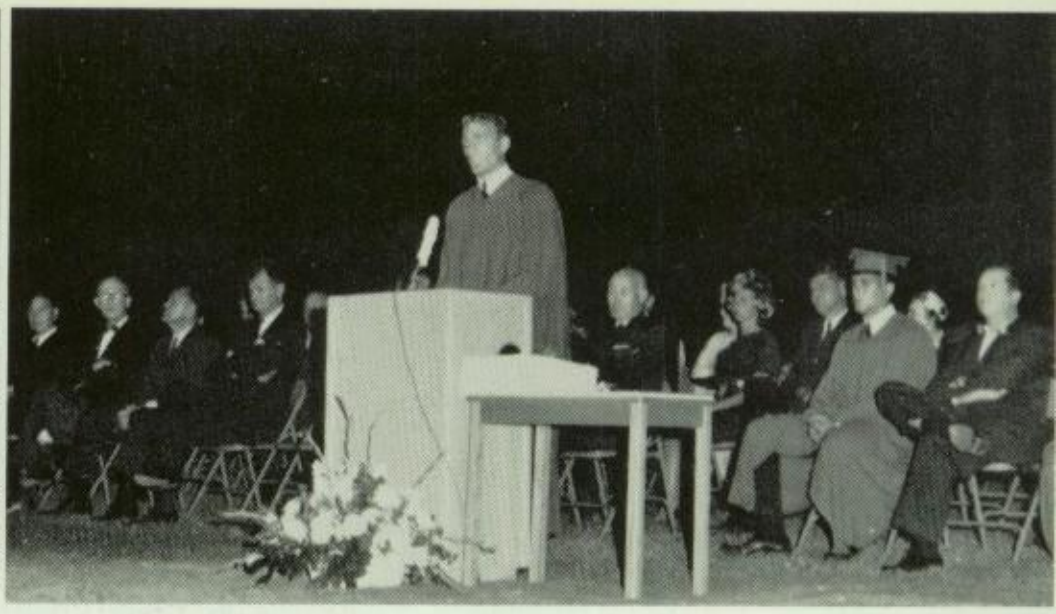


Dr. Evans and Mr. Clark lead the procession.

Following the grads are the teachers.

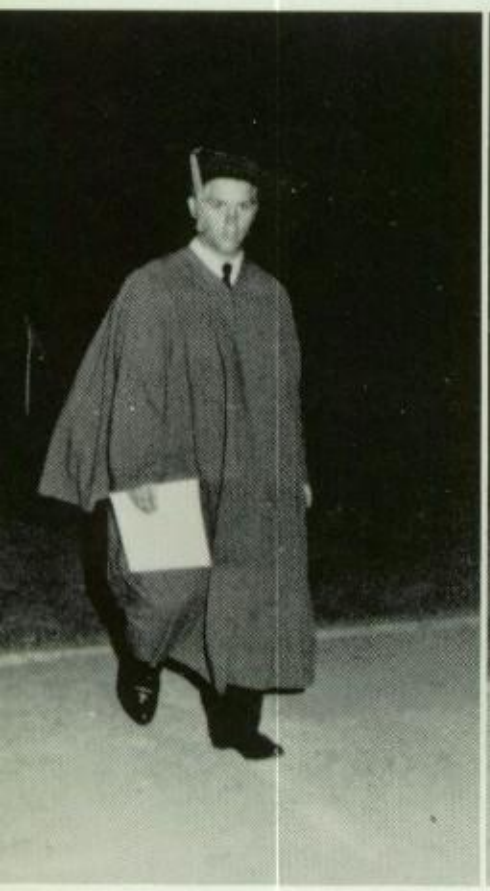
Seniors take their places in the Stadium.

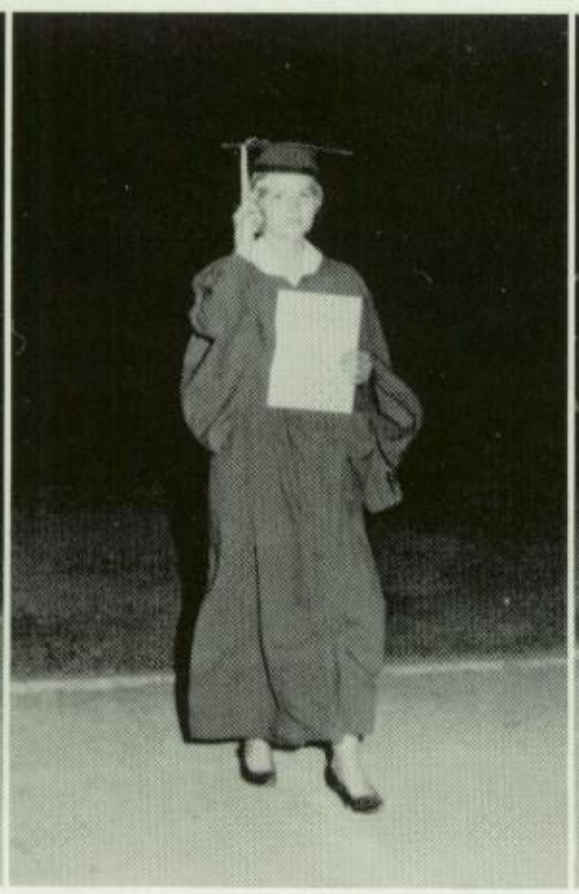
Now we're ready to begin.

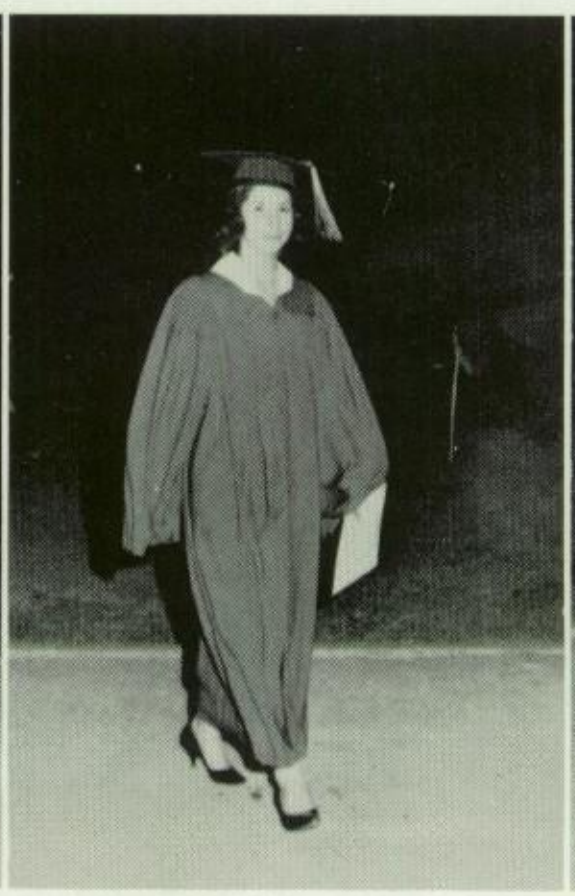


CLASS ORATORS

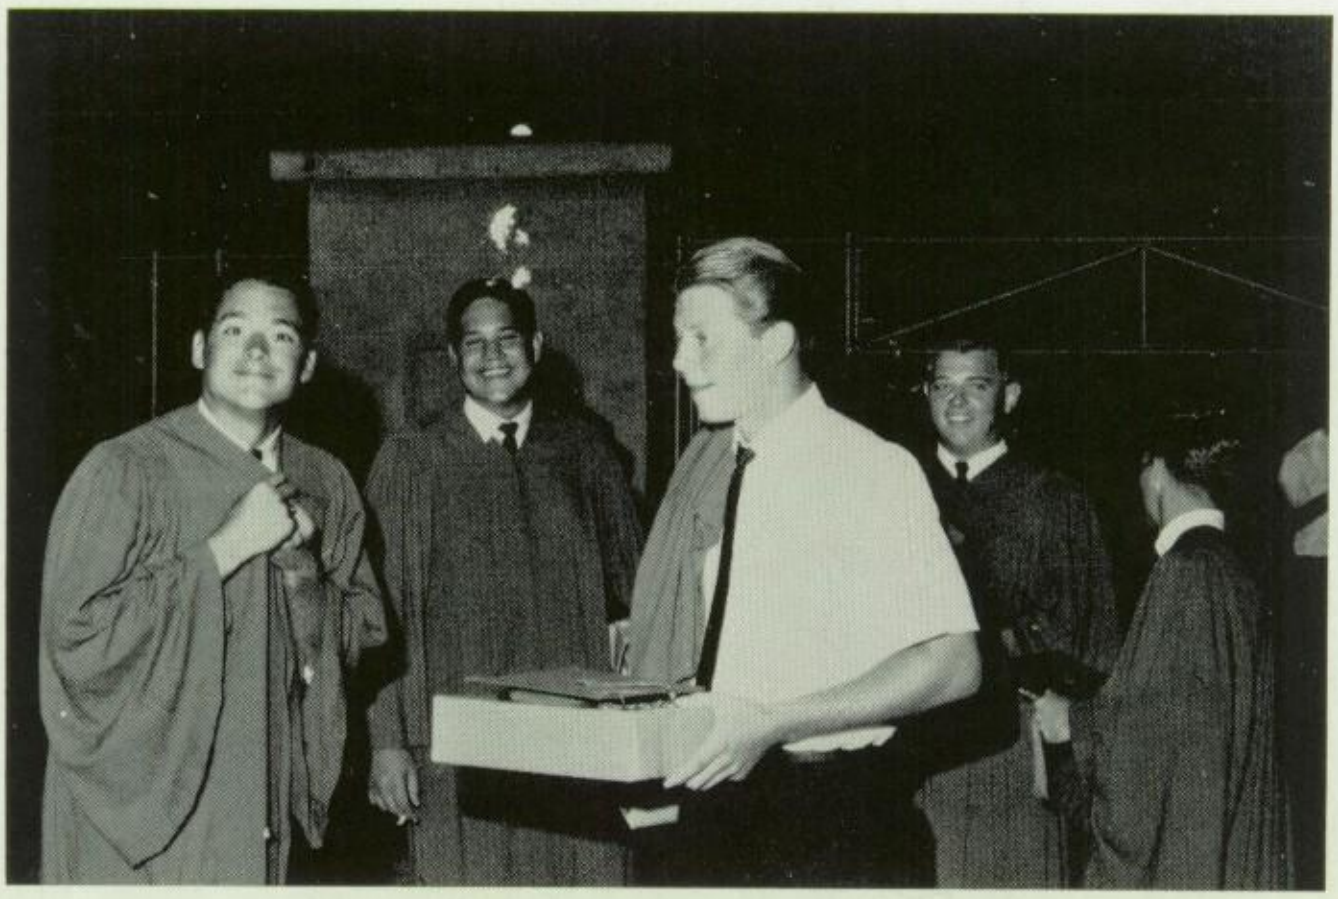
Jane Burka and Bill Brown challenge the 1964 Ball High graduates.







The Big Moment—Graduates with diplomas in hand.



We finally made it!

Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. Vollert, and Mrs. Stein look over list of grads for last time.

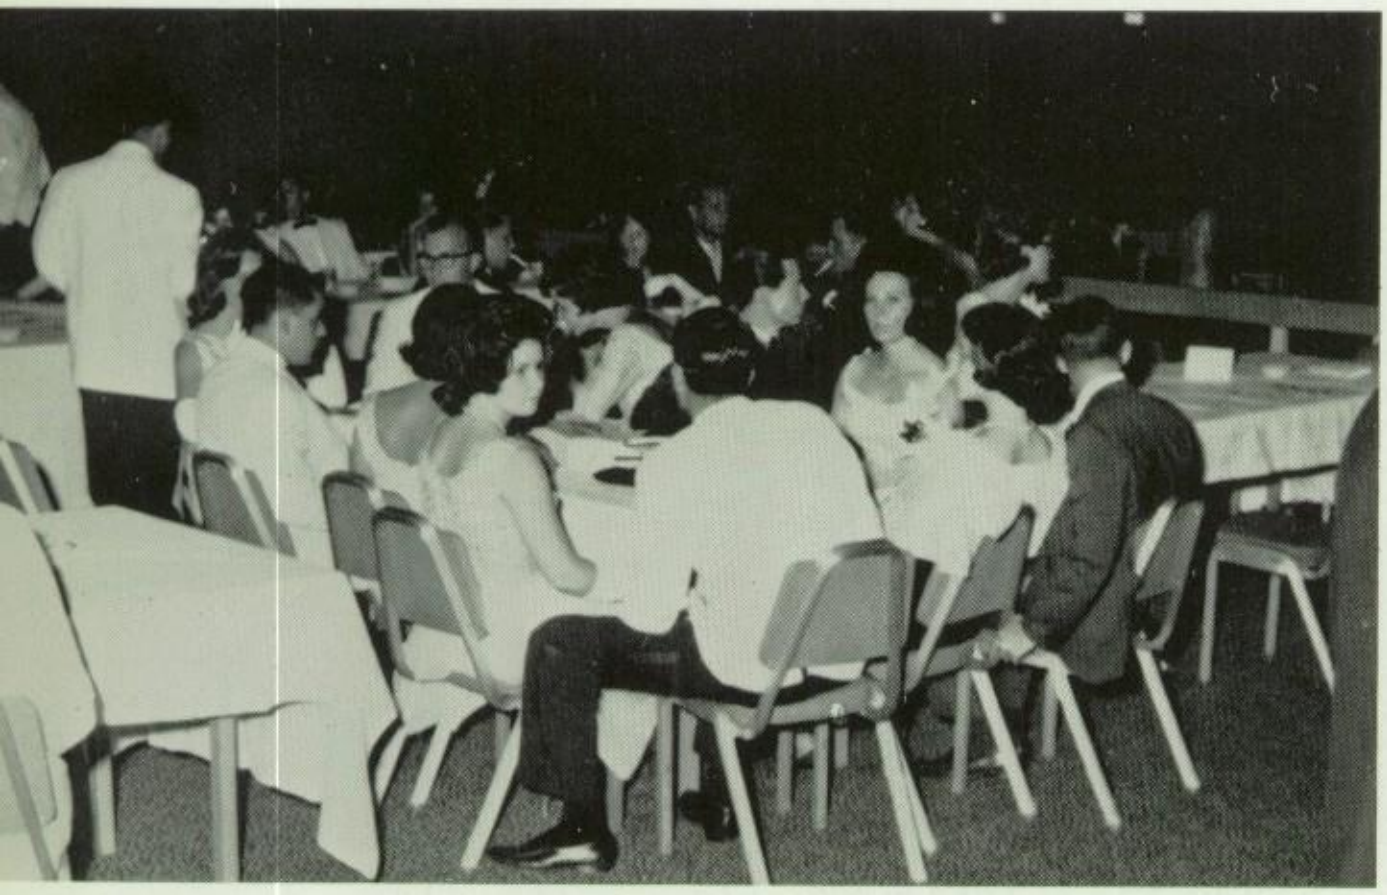
"It's over now, I guess I have to take it off."

One last pose!

Miss Oppe is all smiles. As always, she is so proud of us all.

Ah, now to the party!

AFTER-GRADUATION DANCE



Graduates gather in Moody Center for final fling.

We've got the law on our side.

Everybody dances to C. L. and the Pitchers.

Final Dance.

READY FOR SUCCESS!

In your hands rests the future of America — a nation grown to greatness largely because of the unparalleled freedoms its citizens have enjoyed in the past.

Today, however, these freedoms are threatened from without and from within and it is upon you, the leaders of the new generation, that the privilege and the obligation of defending these freedoms shall fall.

Cherish and protect well your American heritage!
